We've Mist You...

News Flash

Westjet has been chosen the host airline for the National Convention.

Attached to the newsletter and on the website www.cpcbrampton.ca are the applicable forms for setting up your flights. There is a fax form and email form. Please read Westjet's Convention Promise. They will provide a 10% discount off regular fares. Depending on the specific supersaver fare available on the system, they may not offer a discount.

I ask you to remember this, when doing your bookings with Westjet, please quote IATA #67-50544-3.

In the event that you wish to book a supersaver fare, please contact Renate Thompson. Westjet Airlines will pay commissions on their flights to travel agency. I work for Carlin Travel. If we book your flights, the commission earned on your fare will be donated back by Carlin Travel Inc. If you have any questions regarding flights and fares contact Renate at RenateThompson@Rogers.com.

MARCH MERCHANDISE MADNESS WILL GO FROM MARCH 25-APRIL 25.

Check out our website for items you can preorder for the National Convention. There are golf shirts for men and women with your choice of colours, wind jackets for men and women, (two styles of jackets for the men) also with your choice of colours, and golf hats. Also new to the line up..fleece vests, fleece jackets and faded denim shirts.

Have you booked your hotel room yet. Call the Americana Conference resort and Spa at 1-800-263-3508. Advise them you are part of the Canadian Progress Club Convention. The winner of the "book your hotel by January 30, 2007", is Dave Cameron. Dave wins a basket of wine and cheese upon arrival to convention in September.

Congratulations Dave!

Golfing at Niagara Parks "Whirlpool Course"

Ladies and Gentleman, come on out one day early and play at one of Niagara's finest golf courses. The cost is $75.00 per person and includes, golfing, cart and lunch on the turn around. Prizes will be awarded afterwards. After golf we will go back to the hotel for an evening reception hosted by Durham South.

For those wondering what's happening at night....what do I wear...where are we going....

Thursday evening -
Oh' Canada Eh! It's a dinner show and the dress is casual. This is a short walk across from our hotel.

(Bring an umbrella in case of rain, this is Ontario!)

Friday evening -

Dress casual for the evening. You will end up at Hernder Winery for dinner and dancing.

Mystery bus wine tour - where will your bus be going???

We will party hearty to the music of "Orangeman". Want to make the band crazy, wear something orange...get ready to rock! (Oh yea, there is a full bar here)

Looking to see what's happening, where you are going, check out these sites. www.hernder.com, www.orangeman.ca, www.ohcanadaeh.com

That's all you get for now...wait until next month.

Our future newsletters will showcase the following...
April...Niagara Tourist Detail and contacts - partial itinerary
May...Transportation airport details - car rental host for those wanting vehicles
June...More in depth convention itinerary. Seminar details.
July...Hospitality Suite Information (please note that all hospitality suites will be on site at the hotel)
August...Full convention itinerary...anything else we forgot.
September....last minute housekeeping details...are you tired of hearing from us.....

Niagara Region Factoid

Did you know that in Southern Ontario there are over 70 wineries? In the Niagara Region alone there are over 50. Many of these are boutique wineries do not sell their products through Ontario's LCBO, but rather ship privately.

So the big question? How early did you plan on coming to take a personal wine tour of the Niagara Region?
